

COLLEGE RESOURCES ON THE INTERNET

College Information & Applications

Common Data Set (for data about a particular school)
Google Common Data Set + Name of College

College Navigator: nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator
Provides information on over 6000 post-secondary institutions in the U.S.

Go College: www.gocollege.com
Another useful college search site.

US News and WorldReport.edu: www.usnews.com/best-colleges
Students and parents can access the latest US News college rankings as well as helpful information on getting into the school of their choice.

College Scorecard: collegescorecard.ed.gov

Scholarships & Financial Aid

College Board www.collegeboard.org or bigfuture.collegeboard.org
This provides information on scholarships, financial aid, and testing.

fastWEB www.fastweb.com
A free, searchable database of more than 1.5 million scholarships.

The Financial Aid Information Page www.finaid.org
Provides a comprehensive listing of financial aid information.

Student Loan Marketing Association www.salliemae.com
Provides useful information regarding the student loan process and financial aid.

Career Guidance

Career Resource Center www.careers.org
This site maintains a comprehensive database of links to career-oriented websites.

Occupational Outlook Handbook www.bls.gov/ooh
The government's guide to hundreds of jobs and careers.

College Admission Testing

College Board www.collegeboard.org or Digital SAT satsuite.collegeboard.org/digital
This provides information on tests, such as the SAT, as well as college planning and financial aid resources. Students can register online for the SAT.

ACT ACT.org

This provides information on the test, sample questions, and updates. Students can register online for the ACT.

FairTest www.fairtest.org

Students can visit this site for a critical look at standardized tests.

Sylvan Learning Center www.sylvanlearning.com

Test prep tutoring is available through Sylvan.

Other Sites for Parents & Students

College Readiness and Test Prep Tips SylvanNation.com

Dozens of free resources and printables for students and parents.

LD Online www.LDonline.org

A guide to learning disabilities for parents and students.

Learning Disabilities Association of America LDAmerica.org

This advocacy group provides resources for parents and students.

National Association for College Admission Counseling www.nacacnet.org

NACAC has information about college admissions for parents and students.

National Association of Secondary School Principals www.nassp.org

The Common Application is available at this website .

NCAA www.ncaa.org

The NCAA provides information to student athletes and their parents.

Center for Parent Information and Resources www.parentcenterhub.org

This site provides information on disabilities and disability-related issues for families.